The Kayak Centre is offering rental boats for any paddler interested in renting. Please contact Matt at 401-295-4400 to rent a boat. Boats must be reserved in advance and they will be brought to the launch site. Our leaders for the evening are Sharon Dragon shdrag1@gmail.com 401-225-3942 and Pat Lardner pslardner@gmail.com 401-524-8057.

Pawcatuck “Wilderness” Trip

By Erik Eckilson

Each spring, the RICKA Wilderness group does an overnight trip on the Pawcatuck River. This trip was started by former Wilderness Chair Jim Cole to give people a sense of what it takes to do more extended wilderness tripping from a canoe or kayak. It’s a fun trip for “newbies” and experienced paddlers alike.

We are fortunate to have a couple of very nice paddle-in campsites on the Pawcatuck River. There is the Carolina Canoe Campsite in the Carolina Management Area just upstream from the Richmond Landing. It’s a small site, but very nice.

Heading out from the put in

Then there are the Burlingame Canoe Campsites in the Burlingame Management Area upstream from the Bradford Landing. At Burlingame there is a large open field suitable for groups, and five smaller wooded sites. All these sites are available on a first come first serve basis, and can get crowded in the warm summer months. We would actually be camping at a “bootleg” site near the confluence of the Wood River.

One of the challenges of canoe/kayak camping is that everything that you bring needs to fit in your boat. While you can carry more in a canoe or kayak than you can in a backpack, space is still limited, and drybags are needed to keep your gear dry.

Paddling down to the campsite

I didn’t have time to pack in advance, so I was rushing around on Saturday morning to get everything together. We had decided to do group meals for this trip, and I had agreed to cook breakfast. The remnants of Tropical Storm Cindy were also going through, so I had to pack tarps, clothes, and rain gear that I wouldn’t normally bring. By the time I was done I had two big drybags and a cooler stuffed with food and gear.

Just as I was about to leave the rain started, and it pored until about 11:00. Then, as predicted, the storm moved off and the sky cleared. It turned out to be a beautiful day. We met at the Richmond Landing (now called the Jay Cronin Access), ran the shuttle down to Alton, and then got on the river for an easy paddle down to the campsite. We each carried our own gear, and divided up the group gear as best we could.

Enjoying the evening campfire

We arrived at our campsite and found it a mess – littered with beer cans and broken glass. Our first job was to clean things up. After that we set up the tents, took a hike down to the osprey nest (no osprey in residence) and cooked dinner.

Everything tastes better when you cook it in camp, and the food for this trip was no exception. Cindy and Chuck were the grill masters for our evening meal that included salad, sausage and roasted potatoes. Ruth took care of desert – chocolate surprise. With dinner complete, there was nothing left to do but sit back and enjoy the fire.

At around 10:00, we finally turned in for the night. Before I knew it, the morning light was streaming through my tent. I got up and gathered some firewood. Chuck soon joined me, and we quickly had a nice fire going and a pot of coffee perking on the stove.

Packed and ready to go

Slowly the rest group emerged from their tents. Breakfast included monkey bread, omelets and home fries. When we had eaten our fill, we decided it was time to pack up and head for home. We took one last picture before paddling up the Wood River to the take out at the Alton Dam.

By 10:00 our cars were packed and we were saying our goodbyes, but not before agreeing to do this again next year.

Order Your 40th Anniversary Tee Shirt Now

Long-time members probably remember the wonderful tee shirts created for RICKA by Chick Noreau. Chick joined RICKA in 1985 and was an avid canoeist, whitewater paddler, and past Flatwater Chair. In addition to contributing artwork to the Paddler, he also designed tee shirts for many RICKA events. Chick passed away in 2012, and is missed by all.

As we looked for a tee shirt design for our 40th anniversary, we reached out to another graphic artist who has spent a lot of time in his boat – Paul Mason. Paul is the son of the late canoeing legend Bill Mason, and the author of the paddlesport comic Bubblestreet. We are pleased that Paul was able to create the design for our 40th anniversary tee shirt featuring the Bubblestreet crew. The RICKA 40th anniversary tee shirt can be ordered now from our CustomInk order page at: <https://www.customink.com/g/hth0-00b0-z1hg>

Tee shirts will be available for pick up at our August Meeting on the Water, or at the RICKA Family Picnic in September. Order yours now so you don't forget. Orders will close on August 5th.
